

Say Aloha to Trouble in Paradise!

Working as a research assistant in Hawaii sounds like fun in the sun, but there's big trouble brewing on the Big Island. Someone or something destroyed the environmental experiments in the forest around the Hilihili Research compound. Is it the mythical Kāne 'Ōkālā or unfriendly rivals? It's up to you, as Nancy Drew, with the help of the Hardy Boys, to uncover hidden secrets among the strange whispers that haunt the mountains and forests.

Who or what feeds the carnivorous caterpillars that weave thick webs along the stone walls of this ancient cave?

Hanging out beachside might be the best undercover job under the sun, but could shady suspects sink the future of an up-and-coming pro surfer?

Did something sinister escape from Dr. Craven's secret scientific Hilihili compound? Volunteer as a lab assistant and conduct some research.
