

Celebrating 80 Years of Nancy Drew®

With the first case published back in 1930, we're rolling out the red carpet for Nancy Drew's 80th year. Who would have thought that this sassy detective from River Heights would continue to inspire people so many generations later. From the "yellow back" series to graphic novels, our favorite heroine has solved over hundreds of cases in dozens of countries. Her sleuthing skills are legendary and her experience with mystery is well documented, but here's some fun trivia you may not know:

Nancy knows how to tap dance and even went undercover as a dance instructor.

In addition to her dog, Togo, Nancy has a cat named Snowball.

Out of Nancy's first 56 cases only one criminal ever got away.

Nancy's first sleuthing accomplice was her schoolyard pal, Helen Corning.

Lemon meringue pie is Nancy's favorite dessert.

The first international case Nancy solved was in Canada in, The Message in the Hollow Oak.

Nancy has never taken payment for any case she's solved!

After almost a century, Nancy is still saving the day! And with more cases on the way, who knows what excitement the next 80 will bring!
